ACCIDENT.—Last evening, while riding horseback, in company with Miss Katie Syvester, on the prairie near the town of Miss M.

Smith, principal of the public schools of this place, met with an accident so serious in its nature, that for a time, death seemed its inevitable result. While riding at fair speed, the horse stumbled and fell on his knees, and the rider in attempting to leap from him, caught in the bridle reins, and the horse, in turn became entangled in her riding habit, and commenced rearing and kicking at a fearful rate. The lady all the time holding in her the accident, succeeded in extricating Miss

Smith from her perilous position, and saving her from a more serious fate. She was

WILLIAM R. MARSHALL.

The people of St. Paul will have an opportunity to-day by casting their votes for William R. Marshall, to testify their grateful regards for one of her oldest citizens, and for many years one of her foremost, most enterprising, and most public-spirited business men. It is not too much to say that during the course of his long, and until the disastrous commercial revolution of 1857, his prosperous business career in this city—no one contributed more—we can think of no one who contributed as much as he to lay the foundations of his business prosperity, as well as of the State at large. His name is prominently identified with nearly every public enterprise for the commercial development of the State as its leading spirit and prime mover. He first opened the Minnesota river to the trade of St. Paul; he owned the first steamboat that ever plied on that stream, and upon it he sent the first cargo ever transported by steam up that river to Red Wood, above Fort Ridgely, and thus was the first to demonstrate the practicability of navigating the Minnesota for commercial purposes. He was the original promoter of the system of Lend Grant Railroads now in process of construction, and one of the chief and earliest promoters of those great enterprises.

It was mainly by his instrumental aid, and largely by his pecuniary aid, that the St. Paul bridge was built. In this enterprise, of which he was the principal stockholder and President of the company as he is now, he sunk a large amount of money for the benefit of St. Paul. If we recollect rightly it is to General Marshall as much as to any one that we are indebted for our gas works. When he had the means at his command he was one of the most liberal supporters of all our public interests. He was the chief contributor among Minnesotans to the establishment of the Baldwin School and St. Paul College, which in his own prosperity had continued would doubtless have been flourishing institutions now. He was long the President of the Chamber of Commerce, and in that capacity was one of the prime movers and chief contributors to the enterprise for placing a steamboat on Red River.

In every enterprise which presented itself which promised to promote the public interests, his money and his personal influence were always generously placed at the command of the public—as his hand and heart were always open to the poor and needy. No applicant for charity was ever turned from his door empty. The great commercial revolution which at last engulfed the earnings of many years of energetic enterprise only brought out the nobility of his character in

SANT PAUL, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1865.

THE DEMOCRATIC ORGAN AND THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY SOLD OUT.

It may save the unconscious masses of the Democratic party a good deal of unnecessary trouble in going to the polls to-day on a useless errand, if we inform them that, in anticipation of this overwhelming defeat, which is to come for them to-day, they have been surrendered in advance to their "Black Republican" enemies. The capitulation was signed, sealed and delivered in the Pioneer office on Saturday night last, when the Democratic party and its leading organ were, by those presents, duly and formally granted, sold, released, enfeoffed and conveyed, with all the appurtenances thereto belonging, for a sufficient pecuniary consideration, to parties of the Republican stripe, and who, on and after to-morrow, hoist the colors of the Republican party. The Democracy may, therefore, consider themselves handsomely sold; and as their commander has thus dastardly forestalled the event, struck his colors, and run away from the field, after surrendering their chief arsenal, with all their heavy artillery and ammunition, to their adversaries, there is obviously nothing left for the rank and file to do, but to stand arms and retire from the unequal contest with their tails between their legs.

The chief editor and proprietor of the now concern is Harlan P. Hall, a young gentleman who for the past two or three years has been connected with the local and news department of the Press, and to whom we wish every success. It is understood that the purchase money was mainly supplied by Captain Davidson, proprietor of the La Crosse and St. Paul steamboat line, who is the chief party interested. We cannot help thinking, however, that this transfer of the Democratic organ to Republican hands, on the eve of an important political contest, is a poor return for the unnumbered favors and the lavish support which its proprietors have received from the Democratic party for the last twelve years. The current private and public patronage which was previously bestowed upon it by the Democratic party, was amply sufficient to sustain it, and it was, to the least, not only an ungrateful requital of that generous support, but really an inexcusable betrayal of an implied trust, on the part of its proprietors, to allow it to be converted into a Republican paper, and thus to deprive the party, to which it owed all its pecuniary value, of their only organ.

It has always been notorious that party politics in this city and county are more corrupt than anywhere else in the State. Votes on both sides are traded off to an extent which has almost disgraced both political parties. For this demoralization of both parties in this county one man—Bob Smith—is mainly responsible, and both parties are therefore strongly interested in eliminating that only gentleman from the politics of this county. Professing to be a Democrat, and so forth for the purpose of securing the Democratic nomination for County Treasurer, it is nevertheless notorious that he has almost uniformly been elected by Republican votes, purchased at the expense of the rest of the Democratic ticket.

In other words he has uniformly sold out the Democratic party for his—Bob's—special benefit and behoof, and he has always managed to subsidize convenient stool pigeons in the Republican party, who have in turn sold out the Republican party for his benefit. The integrity and discipline of both parties have thus been constantly sapped and undermined by the self-seeking tactics of this self-seeking oligarch, and cunning gentleman, who has used them both and sold them both to serve his individual interests, and is, therefore, about time that he was suppressed. And as the Republican party are the greatest losers by his insidious and disorganizing acts, it behooves every Republican to make special and strenuous efforts to defeat him and secure the election of Richards Gordon, who joins to every other qualification for the position the advantage of being universally liked and esteemed by all who know him. The stain of suspected corruption will rest on every Republican vote cast to-day for Bob Smith, though we don't believe that in view of all the circumstances any Republican will be likely to vote for the Democratic candidate when their own ticket presents a candidate so perfectly unexceptionable as Richards Gordon.

Besides everybody is tired to death of Bob Smith. We have been since the deluge. We have had him for breakfast and dinner and supper, and Bob Smith on week days and Sundays, till the public stomach is gorged and sated and palled at nauseum with endless repetitions of this sweet oil and molasses candidate, and everybody is dead sick of the sight and smell and hearing of the saccharine and oleaginous Bob Smith. The people pine for a change of diet; they beg for at least one season of relief from the inevitable and everlasting Bob Smith. The only escape from the dread alternative of another two years' dose of Bob Smith, is to vote for Dick Gordon.

Then again, it is about time that Bob had a delicate reminder that the office of Treasurer was not created for his special benefit. He has amassed a fortune from it already, and if Republicans have any official enmities to bestow, they had better bestow them where they will help to build up and strengthen the Republican party, instead of placing weapons in the hands of their enemies for their own destruction. Bob Smith doesn't need the office; while Mr. Gordon does. Bob will use its emoluments to injure the Republican party; while Gordon will use them to aid the party.

Still more, a change is necessary to secure a proper administration of the affairs of the office. Constant success has made Bob careless, and the wealth he has accumulated has made him luxurious and indolent. We want a new broom in the Treasurer's office, to sweep out the cobwebs, and fresh air to ventilate the musty books. It is not safe to leave so responsible an office in the hands of one so irresponsible. It isn't safe. Let us have a housecleaning this fall, and require Bob to give an account of his stewardship.

These are naturally and necessarily Democratic to-day. They are a goodly crowd for an honest man to mingle with, aren't they? Their organs are full of professions of regret for their past, and promises of amendment for the future. Let 'em stay out and mend; there is room enough for them.

Meanwhile the country is left without their counsels. They confess their "unhappy mistake" in selling everything to the R. W. P. again and give 'em more satisfaction.

THE DEMOCRATIC ORGAN AND THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY SOLD OUT.

It may save the unconscious masses of the Democratic party a good deal of unnecessary trouble in going to the polls to-day on a useless errand, if we inform them that, in anticipation of this overwhelming defeat, which is to come for them to-day, they have been surrendered in advance to their "Black Republican" enemies. The capitulation was signed, sealed and delivered in the Pioneer office on Saturday night last, when the Democratic party and its leading organ were, by those presents, duly and formally granted, sold, released, enfeoffed and conveyed, with all the appurtenances thereto belonging, for a sufficient pecuniary consideration, to parties of the Republican stripe, and who, on and after to-morrow, hoist the colors of the Republican party. first class news and family newspaper. A fitting occasion offering we also take pleasure in announcing that we have secured upon our Editorial staff the valuable services of General S. P. JENNISON, a talented and vigorous writer, well known in political and military circles throughout the State. By the aid of these fortunate accessions to our staff, we hope to render the Press in every way worthy of the generous support which has been given it by the Republicans of Minnesota.

A FAILURE.

One year ago the Democracy demanded a cessation of hostilities, because, said they, "the war is a failure." They made their prophecies; they advocated their policies; but they made a "failure," a triple failure. They failed before the people. They failed in prophecy, and their policy failed. To-day we have, a victorious army, a returned hero, a country reunited and at peace, the results of that Democratic failure. Now they impudently ask to be rewarded for being so utterly and shamefully wrong in every respect, a year ago.

Why, the only benefit that party has done for years, has been by its failures. Give 'em one more good overwhelming "failure" to-day, and they will accept it with "unfeigned satisfaction;" they will become more and more the "administration party;" they will abandon their schemes of repudiation; and place themselves finally in agreement with the spirit of the age, which leads towards genuine Democracy, towards Justice, Liberty, Equality and Fraternity.

Failures improve them. Do not spare that rod. Let them fall this time utterly.

CHALLENGE THEM.

Deserters and refugees from enrollment and draft, according to act of Congress, forfeited their citizenship. They lost their rights as citizens, including their right to vote, from the moment they severed finally in agreement with the spirit of the age, which leads towards genuine Democracy, towards Justice, Liberty, Equality and Fraternity.

Challenge your votes. Let every one of them know that he will be followed with prosecution and punishment, if he dare thrust his illegal sneak's vote among the ballots of lawful and honorable voters.

Challenge every deserter, soldier, every draft refugee. See how that kind of vermin look by daylight. They are more offensive to an honorable and brave man, than "graybacks" in a blanket; and they will butt their heads before you, like cock-roaches before a blazing lamp.

VOTE FOR THE AMENDMENT.

"CAPT. JACOB MAIZER." The Pioneer runs a savage saw at Maizer, by dubbing him Captain and putting him mercilessly through "all the glorious and sanguinary battles of the Second Regiment." Jacob can't claim but one battle, neighbor. After one, he resigned. He had enough; he was "sick;" he resigned and came home.

And now—instead of mounting barbed "sticks"—he is mounted on a "mule." No, no; Jacob was not distinguished in war beyond other men. His getting into citizen's clothes while waiting for the acceptance of his resignation in Louisville, was not just the thing for a "bold volunteer." It was convenient as a means of avoiding provost marshals, who had an unpleasant way of gathering up officers and men "absent without leave."

Maizer put his hand to the plow and looked back. He faints by the way, and fainted early. We say nothing against him as a man, but it is ridiculous to urge him to soldiers, or to anybody, as a military candidate. It is as much infidelity in military clothes to Maizer, as it is to Jones, as Jones is to Lieutenant Grant.

ALDERMAN OF THE FIFTH WARD.

J. M. Keller is the regular Republican nominee to fill the vacancy for Alderman in the Fifth Ward, occasioned by the resignation of Alderman Galbraith. There has been a nomination since Mr. K. was placed upon our ticket, but Republicans of that strong and decidedly loyal ward will understand that he is the regular nominee, and therefore the only one that should be duly taken care of by the Union party of that ward.

Aside from this, Mr. Keller has been for years one of our most industrious and enterprising mechanics; always from the very start a true and faithful supporter of the Union cause, and has the competency, intellectually and educationally to do all that strong and decidedly loyal ward will understand that he is the regular nominee, and therefore the only one that should be duly taken care of by the Union party of that ward.

Col. Merriam, Mr. Keller's opponent, although a very worthy citizen, is the nominee of "bolters" from the well understood and well advertised ward meeting that nominated Mr. Keller. While, under other circumstances, it would be our pleasure to support Col. Merriam, we must strongly caution our friends of the Fifth Ward, at this critical time, to stand by their organization, and support their regular ticket.

ONE HOPE ONLY.

Every anticipation that almost quickened the pulse of every expectation that at the commencement of the campaign, almost warmed the blood of hungry Democrats, chilled with tarrying so long on the cold and wet, in punishment for their crimes and crimes;

"Every hope so fondly cherished," has "vanished and forever" from those eager, longing hearts.

Rice has gone up. This State has gone up. Slavery can't carry so much cotton and make winning time. New York goes Republican as usual. Kilpatrick has been playing the deuce with them even in New Jersey, and Camden & Ambey can't be depended on. They have given their length on "supporting President Johnson," and now the President catches them all foul, by endorsing negro suffrage. Truly their "sufferings are intolerable," but they have an atom of comfort, a single scintilla of hope.

If they cannot get anything for themselves they hope to be able to deprive the negro of some right, yet. They despair of being able to get control of the National Government, to hand over the freedmen to the late masters, utterly without protection, but they trust to be able to wrong the few blacks in Minnesota. They cannot get control of the well established finances of the State, but they hope to be able to rob some privileges from the negroes here. They have a one left, proportioned to their imagined strength—the hope, through prejudice and indifference, still to keep the negro disfranchised.

Remember that Messrs. Branch and Fairchild are the Republican candidates for Representatives in that district. Mr. Branch's claims to the popular support are too obvious to need special mention. By his energy, ability and practical shrewdness, he has risen step by step in public estimation, till he is now justly regarded as one of our most foremost business men. He never fails in anything he undertakes, and in undertaking to be elected to the Legislature he is bound to win, so the candidate on the opposite side had better step out of the ring. The public interest requires his election. Clear the track for the locomotive. His colleague on the ticket, Mr. Fairchild, is one of the most public-spirited in the city; a man of large and comprehensive views, and of great fidelity of resources; ever on the watch to promote the public interests. The Legislature is precisely the sphere where those "qualities" would tell most powerfully for the good of the city and State.

Remember that Messrs. Branch and Fairchild are the Republican candidates for Representatives in that district. Mr. Branch's claims to the popular support are too obvious to need special mention. By his energy, ability and practical shrewdness, he has risen step by step in public estimation, till he is now justly regarded as one of our most foremost business men. He never fails in anything he undertakes, and in undertaking to be elected to the Legislature he is bound to win, so the candidate on the opposite side had better step out of the ring. The public interest requires his election. Clear the track for the locomotive. His colleague on the ticket, Mr. Fairchild, is one of the most public-spirited in the city; a man of large and comprehensive views, and of great fidelity of resources; ever on the watch to promote the public interests. The Legislature is precisely the sphere where those "qualities" would tell most powerfully for the good of the city and State.
